Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

Organization procedures for monitoring the use of funds:

The April Thacker Dream Scholarship includes a "Dream Session" to prescreen interested applicants and ensure their readiness for investment and mentorship. Applicants to either the Strategies for Success Academic Scholarship or April Thacker Dream Scholarship must submit an application before organizationally established deadlines. Applications are reviewed by She Has A Name's (SHAN) program director to ensure complete and accurate answers. Eligible candidates conduct an interview with a panel of three people including SHAN board members, partner agency staff, and trauma-informed community members. Interview panelists complete a scoring rubric to quantitatively capture applicants' readiness and eligibility for the either program. SHAN staff review interview notes and applications to affirm interviewers scoring and award recommendations. Final award recommendations are determined and presented to SHAN's Board of Directors. Upon board affirmation, an award letter is sent to each awardee. Each awardee must maintain sobriety during one year following the date of the award. Awardees are also matched with a mentor to monitor progress and experience support. Observance of the previous criteria is taken into consideration for any returning applicants.

She Has A Name (SHAN) acquired Columbus' private John School, renaming it the Solicitor Education Program. This one-day course is offered to first time solicitation offenders (those arrested for purchasing sex). We adapted the classes to provide trauma-informed information on prostitution or sex work as a form of human trafficking, the public health ramifications of solicitation, the history of trauma among buyers, the importance of healthy relationships, and accountability. SHAN also developed two reflection activities in partnership with a Masters program research fellow. The activities offer participants a space to reflect on what brought them to the class and what changes they can consider making to avoid being rearrested. Certified counselors, area experts, and members of the community teach the classes. Each participant pays a $350 entry fee, and all profits generated from the program fund SHAN's survivor care programming.
