

Giving hope to the hidden

She Has A Name is a strong community of abolitionists that exists to fight human trafficking through education, collaboration, and survivor care.

www.shehasaname.org @shehasaname_

Engaging Communities

2,170 Average Monthly Visits to Website

Website visitors
46% female
54% male

Facebook fans
83% female
16% male

189 People trained through Anti-Human Trafficking Training in 2016

75% got involved with SHAN or a partner organization following

Age range of individuals who attended classes 18-54

200 Individuals reached at 22 events in 2016.

300 Anticipated guests at our Gala in 2017.
179 attended in 2016.

262 Tees and Hoodies sold, helping to raise awareness in 12 states in 2016.

Empowering Survivors

Survivors served in 2016 through collaborative efforts 280

8 Women enrolled and graduated from our Strategies for Success job readiness class for women in transition in 2016.

They each received 6 college credits and either chose to continue their studies, or to join the work force. 6

Joining Existing Efforts

28 Columbus organizations in our network who are fighting against human trafficking, sharing best practices and connecting community resources with needs.

2017 Liberator Award winner for an Organization

An annual award created by S.O.A.P. (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution) to unite people from around the state who are working for the same cause - to fight human trafficking. The award seeks to highlight the work of amazing individuals and groups.